GOOD AGENTS WANTED. SOMETHING ABOUT GOING EAST.

The shortest possible route between the Great We I and the East, North and South, is over the St. Louis, Kansas Chy and Northern short Lage. This road has gained surprising importance by reason of immease expenditures in the last two years, of over two million dollars, besides earnings, in importenents of roadyay, in relaying their line with best quality of new steeland tron rails, on broad new ite; and by substituting for the contract of t mails, on throat new ites, and by substituting for ordinary cars, new recining chair coacles, elegantly carpetel and filted, with dressing rooms with toiled conveniences for balies, gentlement and families traveling with children, without any other charge. This line runs six less Expressivants between the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers, two more than any other road, and connects with all the great through lines East, West North and south. It is remarkably free from accidentably reason of adopting every modern appliance for comfort, speed and safety, including night and day watchinen, who instead the road before and after the passage of each train to see that everything is secure. We recommend those contemplatings trip East to take the St. Louis, Kanaas City & Northern Short Line, either through S. Louis, the great metropolis of over £2,000 inhabitants, or through Caicago, visit the Chicago & Alton Short Line, over the Louisiana Bridge, now open for the passage of through trains. Ticket Agents of connecting roads selling through tickets to the East, North or South, will furnish tickets by this excellent line.
